STUDENT COUNCIL COMMITTEE

ACTIVITY REPORT

The student council committee of St. Paul College conducted various activities in the academic year 2020-2021.

The student induction programme was conducted online for all the First Year Students. Purpose of this activity was to formally make the students interact with all the faculty members of the college and to introduce them to various activities conducted in the college.

First Year Induction Programme was conducted on – 1st October 2020 at 11AM by the Student Council Head and Head of Department.

The student council in association with Alumni Committee organized an online Event – ‘Chai pe Charcha’ for all the existing students. It was conducted online on – 6th April 2021 at 12PM by the student council head Mr. Sarvesh Patil. This programme was mainly to relax their mind from the chaos going outside and also reaching out as a stress buster for the students who had lost motivation due to a lack of intellectual stimulus or self-isolation from their families or friends.
